GREAT CHURCH PARLEY OPENS AT TOWN HALL HERE TODAY

Speeches Of Welcome To Precede Main Session

1,000 TO ATTEND

Conference To Continue Until May 11

The National Christian Conference, which brings together here a thousand Chinese and foreign church workers from all parts of China, opens at the Town Hall today, when speeches of welcome will be delivered to the assembled delegates by local churchmen and officials and final preparations will be made for the business sessions which begin tomorrow and continue until May 11.

Most of the delegates from outside points have already reached Shanghai—a few are delayed owing to the war in the North—and those in charge of the registration were busily engaged throughout the day at the Town Hall yesterday. Registration will continue today and all delegates who have not yet reported are requested to do so without delay.

In addition to the regular representatives at the conference there will be a large number of foreign visitors, which it is expected, will bring the total attendance to about 1,200.

Kiangsu province, principal missionary center of the country, boasts the largest delegation for the meeting, while from other points the delegation from Fukien ranks as among the largest, comprising forty-four foreign missionaries and ninety Chinese representatives.

WAR DELAYS DELEGATES

The Shensi delegation has been held up by the opening of hostilities in North China and it is feared that delegates from one or two other sections may be similarly delayed. The delegations from the Peking area arrived by boat from Tientsin.

A number of distinguished visitors from other lands will be present for the sessions. Of these there are twenty-four from America, nineteen from Great Britain and five from the Continent. Among the best known of these visitors are Dr. John R. Mott, of the World's Student Christian Federation; Mr. F. S. Brockman, of the Y.M.C.A.; Mr. K. S. Latroutte, formerly of the Yale Mission and now holding the chair of Missions at Yale University; Mr. Marshall Broomhall, of the Home Staff of the China Inland Mission; Dr. H. T. Hodgkin, of the Friends' Foreign Missionary Association; Mr. J. H. Oldham, secretary of the International Mission Council; Mr. D. Carl Helm, of the Bazra Mission; Count J. Moltke, of the Danish Mission Council, and Bishop Nicholas, of Serbia.

WELCOMED TODAY

The principal address of welcome it is expected will be given this afternoon by Bishop Graves, chairman of the Committee on Arrangements. The meeting begins at 3 o'clock and will last until 5 o'clock. Others expected to address the delegates include representatives of the Shanghai Pastors' Association, the Municipal Council, Chinese General Chamber of Commerce and other invited visitors. It is also expected that messages from the President and from the chief provincial officials will be read.

The business sessions of the conference will begin at 9:15 a.m. tomorrow and the program tentatively set is as follows:

Crime Against Love To Be Fat, Woman Says

"IT is a crime to be fat! A crime against love, against health, efficiency and society," declares Mrs. Lulu Hunt Peters, former chairman of the public health committee of the California Federation of Women's Clubs. For years she exercised and dieted while ridding herself of excess weight, asserts Mrs. Peters. She now will devote her time exclusively to popularising scientific knowledge for the benefit of public health—"so fat folks will get lean and lean folks will stay that way."

PREMIER SAYS BRITAIN HAS MAIN STAKE IN RUSS DEBT

"Fifteen Times As Much Interest As France"

COMMISSION ACTS

Text Of Agreement To Be Adjusted By Conference

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, April 30.—It is reported from Genoa that M. Barthou, in explaining the French point of view regarding the projected arrangement for Russian war debts at a meeting of the sub-committee on Russian affairs, stated that the recognition asked from the Soviets entirely conformed to the Cannes resolutions. The French Delegation undertook to recommend to their parliament the adoption of a moratorium in favor of Russia.

Mr. Lloyd George pointed out that Britain's interest in Russian debts was fifteen times greater than France's. It had always been admitted in the Anglo-French conversations, but there now appeared to be a tendency to refute this understanding.

He suggested that the French and British texts should be referred to a committee of Judicial experts. A committee, including one representative each from Great Britain, Italy, France, Belgium and Japan meets today to endeavor to find a formula for adjusting the opposing points of view.

Paris, May 1.—It is reported from Genoa that the Judicial Committee, which is considering the arrangement for Russian war debts, has adopted a formula of conciliation for the war debts between the governments.

It is understood that Russia, in view of her financial incapacity, will be accorded a moratorium

Paris, May 1.—The newspapers publish the summary of a letter from M. Chicherin to M. Barthou, protesting the sincerity of the Soviet's intentions in connection with the Russo-German Treaty, declaring that the Treaty does not contain any secret clauses and stating that there are many points of contact between Russia and France which should facilitate an agreement on all questions.

Prince Of Wales Enjoys Kyoto Trip

(Reuter Pacific Service)

Kyoto, May 1.—The Prince of Wales had another day of sightseeing today. The weather was glorious. His Royal Highness spent this morning viewing some of the famous temples around Kyoto. This afternoon the Prince motored to Kameoka, thence by boat down the Hozugawa river, shooting the frequent boiling rapids for eight miles to Saga. In the evening the Royal visitor dined with the Mayor of Kyoto, afterwards witnessing a beautifully picturesque cherry dance by some of the daint'est singers in Japan.

Diplomatic Corps Plans Protection

Peking, April 29.—The Diplomatic Corps this afternoon held a meeting, at which measures for protecting foreign residents in Peking were deliberated upon. But the substance of the measures to be adopted has not yet been made public.

A Presidential mandate was issued today, ordering the Commanders-in-Chief of the Chihli and Fengtien troops to stop hostilities at once and to withdraw from the battle field without delay.

OSAKA JOURNAL WANTS JAPANESE TO QUIT SIBERIA

"False Policy In Russia" Denounced By "Mainichi"

(Dalta News Agency)

Tokio, April 20.—Demanding the evacuation of Japanese troops from the Maritime Province, the Osaka Mainichi insists that the clash between the Japanese and Russian troops should not be considered a pretext for the non-evacuation of the Japanese, as the clash is entirely a result of Japan's false policy in Russia.

"There is nothing," says the journal, "inprobable in the supposition that as soon as Russia can assure her international situation, she will direct all her attention and force to bring about order in the Russian Far East, and if Japan does not immediately evacuate her troops, clashes are bound to become often in the future.

"Nevertheless, our government complying with the demands of the military clique not only has decided to break up the Dairen conference but is almost ready to deny its own explanations made at the Washington conference with regard to evacuation. We cannot refrain from wondering at how blind our Government is to the international situation.

"As a preliminary condition for the Genoa conference Japan agreed in Cannes to respect the sovereignty and the territory of other participating Powers. Does not any military clash of Japanese troops with Russian troops in Russian territory violate to a certain extent this preliminary condition for the Genoa conference? Every day delaying the evacuation serves only to create more complications and increase our diplomatic difficulties."

CHANG'S ARTILLERY IN WESTERN HILLS RESISTS WU'S THRUST TO NORTH

JAPANESE DIRECT FIRING, WU HEARS

Twenty-Five Thousand Men Engaged On Each Side; Wu Plans Flanking Movement; Fresh Forces Streaming To Aid Of Chihli Army

BY JOSEF W. HALL

(Staff Correspondent of The China Press, with Wu Pei-fu's Army)

Field Headquarters near Changsintien, May 1.—The Fengtien positions on the slopes of the Western hills, reinforced by big guns, proved impregnable today, Chang's artillerymen showing good marksmanship. The line from Fengtai to Changsintien is still dominated by Chang's men, who are excellently equipped, and who so far have assumed a purely defensive attitude.

General Wu is bringing up more men in preparation for a flanking attempt. The General has been at the front two days and nights. An artillery battle has been in progress twenty four hours, with 25,000 men in action on both sides in this sector.

Wu's intelligence officers report that Japanese range-finders are employed by the Fengtien troops. Wu's best artillery brigade, under command of a French trained commander, arrived here tonight.

Poatingfu, April 30.—It is the plan of the Chihli army to occupy Changsintien at noon tomorrow, and Fengtai a little later. On the Tientsin front a slight advance was reported over the Repulse bridge.

A Honan reinforcement brigade passed Paotingfu today on the way to Changsintien, and additional troops from Shensi will follow soon. A heavy battle in the direction of Tientsin is expected soon.

A foreigner who has arrived here from Tientsin by motor car reports that the Fengtien troops acted savagely, in contrast to the Chihliites, and that Tientsin is apprehensive of being sacked in the event of a severe defeat for Chang's men.

CENTER OF FENGTIEN LINE YIELDS IN FACE OF TERRIFIC ASSAULT

Chang's Troops Forced To Retreat To Peking-Tientsin Railway Southeast Of Capital; Heavy Firing Throughout The Day

WU'S REINFORCEMENTS MOVING UP

BY BERT L. KUHN

(Staff Correspondent of The China Press)

Pekng, May 1—Reports received at the American Legation here indicates that the Chihli forces were successful in their heavy drive at the center of the Fengtien line, forcing Chang's men back toward the Peking-Tientsin railroad near Huangsuntien. Wu's men surrounded a mixed division from Jehol and Kalgan, killing the division commander.

General Wu Pei-fu is reported at Jenkiu, enroute from Paotingfu to Machang via the highway. A heavy Chihli attack on Machang is expected with a view to forcing Chang's men to fall back to Tientsin.

A telegram from Tehchow says that the eighth division from Pukow arrived there and started North for Machang. Forty-five hundred men of the first Shantung mixed division are already there and the nineteenth division is expected today.

Exceptional heavy firing to the South was heard all last night in Peking. The Chihli forces are believed to be nearing the capital from that direction. The Chihli troops under the direction of General Feng are reported to be retiring Southward with the object of drawing Chang's men further down the Peking-Hankow railroad. Heavy casualties have been reported from all sides.

The diplomatic body at Peking will address a strong protest to the government following the report of the American vice consul at Tientsin that the Peking-Mukden line between Tientsin and Shanhaikuan is blocked and that trains are being turned back. It will be pointed out that this is a direct violation of the treaty which provides for keeping the road open. British, French and Italian gunboats have arrived at Taku.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tientsin, May 1.—The British Volunteers have been ordered to prepare for mobilisation at any moment and to keep their rifles handy. According to the Peking and Tientsin Times the Fengtien left wing crossed the Grand Canal and occupied Tachang. The center occupies Yungching but not Ku-an.

The Peking and Tientsin Times learns from Peking that artillery firing started again at nightfall, appearing to be nearer to Peking than hitherto.

It is reported that General Wu Pei-fu's flanking attack might result in the interruption of the railway at Fengtai, where the railway and telegraph staffs were preparing to leave for Peking late last night.

Present Conflict Looks Like A Real War, Say Observers

BY BERT L. KUHN
Staff Correspondent the China Press

Peking, April 30.—War, a grim war of a type hitherto unknown in China is raging today over a far-flung battle line which at its nearest point at Changhsintien is but a trifle more than fifteen miles from Peking.

Opera bouffe tactics have been forgotten. There's no stopping for tea, rice, or the exchange of apologies. This is real war with big guns booming almost without pause, the constant and monotonous crack of rifle and machine gun fire and a rapidly swelling stream of dead and terribly wounded falling in its wake, and all the other grim raw horrors which accompanied the fighting on the Meuse, in Chateau Thierry and across the gory, barbed-wire miles of "No-Man's Land."

"They're really playing marbles for keeps now".

That remark, by one of my American companions on a tour of the battlefront in the midst of the hottest fighting at Changhsintien, admirably sums up the war situation in North China today.

At Changhsintien we saw thousands upon thousands of Chang Tso-lin's troops well equipped, well disciplined and brave to the point of foolhardiness in the face of a fierce, death-messenger fire that would have made almost any Western soldier pause.

On a mile wide plain at the brow of a sloping hill batteries of six inch guns blazed steadily dropping tons upon tons of shrapnel into the ranks of the enemy, and receiving in return a fire from the troops of Wu Pei-fu on their west front which indicates that the Chihli forces are admirably equipped with heavy artillery. Machine guns sputtered endlessly on both sides, singing a whining song of death to the contending Chinese troops.

High explosive shells whizzed overhead and dropped with sickening thuds. But the Manchurian troops stood to their guns while the infantry continued to advance on the enemy. Men all around me dropped horribly wounded and were carried back to the first aid field stations by stretcher bearers while their comrades continued coming up from the rear to replace them and moved stolidly on.

Chang Offers Army $3,000,000 Reward

(Kuo Wen News Agency)

Peking, May 1.—Marshal Chang Tso-lin has offered $3,000,000 as a reward to the Fengtien troops if they capture Paotingfu.

Railroad trains, camel cavalcades and carts of all vintages and descriptions moved constantly forward with the reinforcements and supplies from Peking. Fengtien forces, comprising the First Division of Nanyuan troops under General Chang Ching-hui, are now securely established at Changhsintien with apparently an abundant supply of food and munitions.

Country dwellers between Changhsintien and Peking were not disturbed by the troops and continued to work in their fields to the accompaniment of the booming big guns.

Peking has been deserted by the tourists and a close watch is being kept on the city gates to make sure that no fighting occurs in the city. Additional forces of American Marines and Sikh troops arrived today to be used to defend foreign property and lives if the troops of either side are swept toward Peking.

Here's Line-Up Of Contending Forces

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, April 29.—The disposition of the Fengtien and Chihli troops is as follows:

The Fengtien troops' left wing is in the district of Chinghai, the center in Tungan and the right wing in Tachangchung near Changhsintien and is now awaiting reinforcements.

The Chihli troops have concentrated their main force in Paotingfu, keeping the left wings in Chochow, Liuliho, and Fangshan, the center in Pahsien, Jenchiu, Hochen and Wenan, and the right wings in Tachenghsien.

On the night of April 27, the right wing of the Chihli troops commenced to attack the Fengtien troops in the district of Chinghai and though they were at first repulsed, they again took the offensive from yesterday in the districts of Chinghai and Chinghsien.

Meantime, in the central part of the battle field, Pao Te-shan, brigadier general of the Fengtien troops, at the head of the 1st Column, is now making an attack in the direction of Yungchinghsien with the object, it is said, of attacking the Chihli flank at Chochow. Lieutenant General Hsu Luan-chow, Chief of the General Staff of the Fengtien troops, has now advanced far into the enemy line and is fighting a desparate battle.

The Fengtien troops in the district of Changhsintien consist of the temporarily organised first Division under the command of General Chang Ching-hui, the sixteenth Division under the command of General Tsou Feng, and the second Mixed Brigade, which are constructing trenches from Tachangchung to Tahsing and are arraying a row of field-guns with a view to taking the defensive, while the Chihli troops in that district consist in the 24th Division, part of the 23rd Division and the 13th Mixed Brigade under the command of Tan Ching-kuo, the Commander-in-Chief being either General Wu Pei-fu or General Wang Chengpin.

War In North Will Be Fought To Finish, Belief

BY BERT L. KUHN

Staff Correspondent the China Press

Tientsin, April 26.—Whether North China this year is to witness the one grand climax to a decade of more or less petty internecine strife or whether the impending struggle will end as have many abortive conflicts of the past in a game of bluff to the limit and then back down is still a question here as this is being written. There are many indications and opinions on both sides, but authoritative information, even from the leaders of the opposing Chihli and Fengtien factions is distinctly a missing quantity. Telegram follows telegram, conference conference, mediation mediation, and still beneath all is heard the surly undertone of a clanking of arms as each side, apparently, prepare for the ultimate show-down in the field.

Tientsin, generally, is frankly sympathetic to General Wu Pei-fu. People here, both Chinese and foreigners, look upon the movement of Fengtien troops below Shanghaikwan as a measure that means not a guarantee of fairness to the proposed reunification conference here but an attempt on the part of Marshal Chang Tso-lin to extend his dominions into the rich central provinces and thereby dominate China completely. Although they believe that the formation of one strong government is essential to the life of China, they do not think that Chang Tso-lin has the power to form that government nor the innate ability and honesty to operate it properly after it is formed.

WU'S STRENGTH

Wu Pei-fu, they assert, is the idol of the people of Central China. Whether his hold on his people is justified by his conduct or not, opinion here is that that hold is too strong for Chang Tso-lin to break.

Each day of the past week, they point out, has materially weakened the cause of the Manchurian leader. His failure to arrange a satisfactory agreement with Tsao Kun and the latter's open arraignment of him and all his plans, Shantung's pledge that it will remain neutral in the event of any warfare, and the defection of several of the minor tuchuns are held to have handicapped Chang Tso-lin to such an extent that whatever chance of success in the event of actual war he may have had has been minimised to the extreme, if not entirely eliminated.

But there are many others here, unbiased in their beliefs, who appear to have taken a far more logical stand in the matter. While they are not openly for Chang Tso-lin, they are heartily sick of the continual bickerings and petty altercations. Stability must come, they say. It can only come through some strong central force. Chang Tso-lin, they point out, has established a really stable well-organised government in the Manchurian provinces. They believe that if his armies are sufficiently powerful he can do the same for all China. One way or another, they want a really united China.

WAR INEVITABLE

Among both classes, there are those who argue that a war to the end is inevitable now, whether Chang Tso-lin wants it or not. They cite the fact that he has already moved 146 trainloads of troops from Mukden, of which 90 have gone down the Tientsin-Pukow railway and 28 to Laofa. For Chang to back down now, they say, would involve not only a loss of "face" which would be fatal to any future aspirations which he might have anywhere in China but would also no doubt cause a tremendous loss among Chang's soldiery, as a strategic retreat back to Mukden is impossible with Chang's forces placed as they now are. Chang's delay in moving forward to an actual test of arms, they say, is due not to any fear of the consequences—for the consequences are inevitable now—but to a desire to be fully prepared for a struggle, which, he realises, will be of the most trying sort.

Tientsin generally, although it is the focal point in the entire scheme of troops movement, knows little definite as to just what is occurring. Endless trainloads of Manchurian soldiery have moved through the city. A quartermaster's office for the Fengtien army has been established near the Russian concession. There have been innumerable councils of war most of which have posed under the guise of mediation proceedings. Generals come and go with such frequency that the local press is hard put to record their doings. But of the actual happenings behind the scene little, if anything, is known.

CHANG'S TROOPS

The most reliable information has it that the main body of Chang Tso-lin's troops are quartered along the Tientsin-Pukow railway on a line extending for some distance south of Machang—just how far is not known. The Chihli troops hold their position parallel to this line, in some instances the opposing forces being within a very few miles of each other.

Another huge body of Manchurian troops is being mobilised at Laofa, on the Tientsin-Peking line, which has been turned into a general mobilisation camp for Chang Tso-lin's forces. It is here that the headquarters of the twenty-seventh division, the pride of the Manchurian army have been established.

Peking reports have it that a new position is being prepared along the Hun River, which will be the first line of defense for this sector. Just what disposition Wu Pei-fu is making of his troops to oppose this new move is not known in Tientsin.

Both sides are busy issuing wordy statements to the effect that their troops have received rigid instructions not to move forward from their present lines. Neither seems willing to accept the onus of having drawn first blood. Yet it is definitely known that beneath all the front of "watchful waiting" elaborate plans of action are being worked out.

BY BERT L. KUHN

Staff Correspondent the China Press

Tientsin, April 26.—Indicative of the general feeling of apprehension current in Tientsin today is the difficulty of obtaining acceptance for any excent Tientsin bank-notes in even the smallest negotiations with merchants here. Particular objection is raised to notes of the Bank of China and the Bank of Communications, which have been issued by any of the branches, but in some instances even notes issued by foreign banking firms in Shanghai are spurned.

Notes of the Bank of Communications seem to be suffering more than those of the Bank of China, although it is possible to obtain recognised Tientsin and Peking currency for both at approximately the same rate of discount. A tremendous business in the exchange of these notes, regarded as dubious by some, has sprung up among the Chinese money-changers and native banks, and there is no end of bargaining, and, after the bargain is completed, frantic rushing about to unload as quickly as possible at anything but a loss.

The rates of discount vary according to the origin and character of the notes. In one store, bitter objection was raised to all Shanghai money, Chinese and foreign. Lengthy negotiations with the foreign proprietor finally led to his consent to accept one five dollar note of the Bank of China (Shanghai), but only after he had telephoned his foreign bank and learned that he must insist on a discount of ten cents, or two per cent.

Some native money changers insist on a discount as high as five percent on all Shanghai money issued by foreign banks, and ten percent on all Shanghai notes issued by Chinese banks, including the Bank of China and the Bank of Communications. By adroit bargaining, however, the man with money to change can bring the discount down to one percent for the foreign notes and one and one-half for those issued by Chinese banks.

This lower rate, however, holds good only for Shanghai money. Money issued by Chinese banks in the provinces is subject to a decidedly higher discount. A five dollar note on the Bank of Communications, Chekiang, brought, at first bid, only four dollars in Tientsin money, but further bargaining brought the discount down to ten percent. Notes issued by the branch of the Bank of Communications at Chefoo were refused by no less than ten native money-changers here.

The antipathy to notes issued by the Chinese banks is not confined to these outside of Tientsin. Every effort is made, even in dealing in Tientsin or Peking money, to obtain bills which bear the stamp of some foreign banking corporation. Particular preference seems to be given to notes issued by American banks.

Reports Conflict On Battle Result

(Reuter's Service)

Peking, April 29.—The fighting in the district of Changhsintien appears to have lasted till 2 o'clock this afternoon. With regard to the result of the battle, reports are conflicting and it is very difficult yet to get to the truth of it. But so far as can be gathered from various reports available, it seems evident that in the face of the fierce attack on the part of the Chihli troops, the Fengtien troops obstinately held their own with the result that the former were compelled to retreat without accomplishing their object.

It is also reported from a reliable source that the Chihli troops proceeded to concentrate in the district of Linghsianghsien from yesterday afternoon, and that at dusk skirmishes took place between patrols of the two contending troops.

This morning at 3.30, the Chihli troops attacked the Fengtien troops in the district of Changhsintien, but the latter did not respond to the attack until the former approached. The Fengtien troops, however, at 6 o'clock this morning, greeted the Chihli troops with fierce gun-fire and the fighting lasted till 2 o'clock this afternoon with the consequence that the Chihli troops made a retreat at last.

It is reported that the Chihli troops are going to make an attack tonight, but the Fengtien forces are fully prepared against such emergency. The Fengtien troops in the district of Changhsintien are reassured again since the arrival of the second Mixed Brigade and the whole of the 16th Division and are now constructing strong defensive works.

Against these Fengtien forces, the Chihli troops, besides the Thirteenth Mixed Brigade, had an addition of part of the Twenty-third Division. As the Chihli forces are outnumbered in the battle-field of Changhsintien, they will hardly carry Changhsintien which is the base of operations of the Fengtien troops, it is believed.

CHINESE JAILED FOR ATTEMPT TO EXTORT $3,000

Three Chinese were sentenced to three years' imprisonment and expulsion and three others were ordered expelled from the Settlement by the Mixed Court yesterday for attempting to extort $3,000 from one Lung Ping-chi, 48 East Yuhang Road, by means of threatening letters.

Three of the six were arrested in the Chinese Public Gardens after detectives, following the instructions given in one of the letters, had deputised a Chinese woman to meet the gang's emissaries. The other three were arrested at 975 Miller Road, where the police found papers showing that the men belonged to a secret organisation known as the "Long Life Society."

China Needs Birth Control To Hold Back Disease, Says Mrs. Margaret Sanger

Speaking at the invitation of three local Chinese organisations, Mrs. Margaret Sanger, president of the Birth Control League in America, addressed an audience of 800 persons at the Labor Museum, West Gate, Sunday afternoon. It was the only public gathering which Mrs. Sanger has addressed on the subject of birth control during her week's stay in Shanghai and her remarks were received with every mark of interest and attention by her Chinese hearers.

Following the lecture Mrs. Sanger expressed herself as much gratified over the response she has found in this country thus far.

"The Chinese press especially has been excellent," the famous birth control advocate said. "They have devoted valuable space to the exposition of views of prominent Chinese on birth control, besides printing my own theories and ideas for the improvement of China through the dissemination of knowledge on the subject."

Mrs. Sanger's address of Sunday was given under the auspices of the Association of Family Reformation, the Kiangsu Educational Association and the National Association of Vocational Education of China. She delivered the lecture in English which was translated, first by a girl returned student and later, when her modesty tripped the rendition into Chinese of the startlingly frank doctrine of the lecturer, by a Chinese physician.

GIVES ILLUSTRATION

In her talk Mrs. Sanger took as an illustration two young couples starting out into life, each having available the same wages and enjoying a similar social position. One family worked out its destiny with a knowledge of properly exercised birth control and the other did not. At the end of ten years the one couple found themselves with three or four children, well brought up and independent, while the father and mother were united in mutual respect and companionship. The other couple found themselves with perhaps eight children, some weak and undernourished, while the mother was broken in health and the father was exhausted from the strain of maintaining the family.

Mrs. Sanger then, as requested by her audience, told of the practical application of the doctrine of birth control and emphasised the importance of sterilisation for those suffering such diseases as leprosy if the health of China is to be improved.

Before sailing for Hongkong and Canton in continuance of her world-tour in furthering the doctrine of birth control, Mrs. Sanger wrote the following article exclusively for THE EVENING STAR and THE CHINA PRESS giving her impressions of what birth control can do for China:

A great sadness comes over me in China, especially when I walk the streets and witness the strange contrast between the native and foreign settlements. The International and French settlements with well paved streets, well kept lawns, palatial homes and few well cared for children—the native city reeking with filth and a home for a people so huddled and crowded together that it is difficult to pass in the narrow streets.

Here one sees the results of over crowding brought about directly and indirectly by accidental breeding and over-population. The streets swarm with people of all kinds—men, women and children eager in their struggle for existence. Seventy per-cent of those you see have ailments of some kind, those with running sores and diseased scalps predominating.

The hordes of beggars are beyond description. Whether they are professional beggars or not does not wipe out the horror one feels to see a mother and a sick child lying in the street upon a few dirty rags begging for a few coppers to keep her child alive.

Such sights are not good for a people. They harden and callous the finest sensibilities until after a time one either does not notice them at all—or does not care.

CAUSE OF CHINA'S PLIGHT

As one looks about in China, from Peking to Hankow and Shanghai, and reflects upon the two thousand years of civilisation China has enjoyed one cannot but ponder at the cause which has led so splendid a people into the terrible plight, national and international, in which China finds herself today. To some of us who interpret history through causes instead of effects we find the same cause at work, eating away the vitals of China's civilisation, as that which threatens the civilisation of the West. That cause is the rapid multiplication of the unfit and diseased!

Unfit and diseased are outrunning the fit and healthy by three to one. This comparative fertility of the fit and the unfit makes the educated and healthy classes overrun by the diseased and unfit unless some drastic action is taken to check the multiplications of those Nature has been so cruel to.

As I view the situation in China I believe her future lies in the hands of the man who has the daring and courage, not to marshal the soldiers of the North or the South to kill each other, but to marshal the paupers, beggars, lepers, syphilitic and insane together and order painless sterilisation that their kind and their diseases shall not be perpetuated. That would be the first step toward establishing a New China.

FOURTH TRAFFIC CONFERENCE HAS STARTED LABORS

Heads Of Railway Departments Meet In Peking To Help Improve Conditions

(Reuter's Special Service)

Peking, April 23.—The first meeting of the fourth General Traffic Conference opened at the Ministry of Communications on Tuesday, April 18. It was attended by representatives of the various Government railways and the Ministry of Communications. Mr. C. S. Liu, Director of the Railway Department, presided.

Mr. Liu in welcoming the members commented upon the extreme importance of these conferences both to the railways and the public. He pointed out that the conference, which enabled the members to become better acquainted with economic conditions throughout the country from time to time had greatly increased in importance and had become an institution upon which the Ministry of Communications and the Railway Administration relied for guidance. The public also had been educated to expect valuable results from these annual meetings at which the members showed appreciation of the views of merchants and travellers with regard to rates and the railway working in general. It would be well for the members to realise this, and to keep in mind the fact that their decisions had a direct bearing upon the economic welfare of the people of China.

The sessions during the week were devoted to technical questions concerning the working of the railways. One item taken up was of special public interest, namely, that in view of the number of accidents, often due to the ignorant country people trespassing upon the railway lines the conference should do everything possible to minimize accidents. As an illustration of the dangers which the railway would have to contend in this purpose it was pointed out that some of the country people even use the rails as pillows for their heads and sleep on the lines. It was resolved that an educational campaign was necessary to make the people aware of the danger of trespassing on the lines.

FOR REMOVING SUPERFLUOUS HAIR.

No woman who has any sense of beauty will deny that superfluous hair is one of the greatest drawbacks to good looks.

Realising this, women of all times have put themselves to any expense, and have endured considerable pain and discomfort in order to rid themselves of this great disfigurement.

Nowadays electrolysis is a prevalent "cure" for this evil, but in reality this process involves a great deal of unnecessary expense, waste of time and pain.

The simplest quickest, and most effective treatment can easily be carried out by any sufferer, in the privacy of her home. This is the recipe:

Procure about 1 oz. powdered pheminol from your chemist; mix a sufficient quantity with a few drops of water into a stiff paste. Apply this carefuly and thoroughly to the hair you wish to remove, and allow the paste to dry. In a few minutes it can be gently scraped away. The skin is left absolutely free from hair, and should then be carefully washed in warm water, and if desired, lightly dusted with a little talcum powder. (Advt.)

Go to bed, keep quiet and have Chamberlain's Liniment applied and a quick recovery may be expected. Mrs. F. J. Dann, Brockport, N. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment in the house and this was applied to my back. It promptly drove away the pains and aches."

CHRISTIAN SPIRIT NEEDED TO SOLVE PACIFIC PROBLEM

So Declares Dr. R. A. Ward In Sunday Address Here

"Fifty years hence the world will see our failure, and pay a costly price for it, if we do not sense and preach and grow a clearly-felt Christian spirit in the new life around the Pacific," prophecied Dr. Ralph A. Ward, associate secretary for China of the Methodist Episcopal Church Board of Foreign Missions, in his address Sunday afternoon at the Community church.

Dr. Ward's address dealt with the present problems of the Pacific Basin in the light of the actions taken by the delegates at the recent Washington Conference. He held out Christianity as the one great hope of the Pacific.

"The ten year naval holiday," said Dr. Ward, "is a period in which the peoples of the world should be prepared in ideals and mutual understanding to determine the permanent answer to this question of war."

Dr. Ward is in Shanghai to attend the sessions of the National Christian Conference, which opens today. He was for seven years a missionary in China and for the past two years has been in New York in the position which he now holds. He was one of the founders of the Institutional church at Foochow, which is not only the first but is declared to be the largest Institutional church in China. He is a close student of Far Eastern affairs and followed the deliberations of the Washington Conference with keen interest.

In his Sunday address Dr. Ward called attention to the statement made by President Harding just before the opening of the Washington Conference, in which the President declared:

"Never before was the world in such need of sound religion in personal, social and public life. If the churches fail in their high and holy tasks, there is small hope for civilisation."

"No country on the Pacific Basin can escape participation in the war of the Pacific," Dr. Ward emphasised, "if war becomes the inevitable method of solving Pacific problems. It was so on the Atlantic. For a hundred years America felt sure she never would put soldiers at war in Europe. Then she furnished four million men. And the inescapable necessity of China and Japan and America paying in war the price of the geographical and social positions on the Pacific is evident to all who study even casually the forces and life now gathering. The only escape from war lies in the Christianisation of international relationships and inter-racial contacts."

Dr. Ward in no way belittled the achievements of the Washington Conference and the guarantees for peace which it laid down. He declared, however, that the chief and most effective guarantee which can be given to the world is the elimination altogether of predatory ambitions founded on injustice and in the wide-spread popular promotion of those ideals which make against war.

He pointed out that this could be accomplished only by enlarging Christian education, clarifying and intensifying national Christian consciousness, spreading the message of Christ over a broader area and by strengthing and multiplying the ties of conscious Christian fellowship among the peoples of the earth.

Whooping Cough.

This is a very dangerous disease, particularly to children under five years of age, but when no paregoric, codeine or other opiate is given, is easily cured by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Most people believe that it must run its course, not knowing that the time is very much shortened, and that there is little danger from the disease when this remedy is given. It has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, with pronounced success. It is safe and pleasant to take.

Dr. Gilbert Reid returned yesterday from a hurried trip to Anking, the capital of Anhui, made at invitation of the Civil Governor, a personal friend of over twenty years standing. In three days Dr. Reid gave eight addresses, five being to educational bodies, one to merchants, one to the officials and one to adherents of the Great Religions. The latter was the climax of the series and over 500 were present. Arrangements were made by the Confucian, Buddhist and Mohammedan Societies. The Civil Governor presided. Besides Dr. Reid's address, speeches were made by one Confucianist, two Buddhists —ex-officials—one Moslem and by Bishop Huntington. The general sentiment of all groups was in hearty support of peace and unity to China, but a fatalistic feeling that war was inevitable.

Seven Italian Tars Arrested Following Fight In Hongkew

Chinese Is Stabbed After Row On Tram Car

As a result of a brawl in Hongkew Sunday evening, when one Chinese was stabbed in the back, seven Italian sailors from the cruiser Sebastiano Caboto were arrested and will appear in the Italian Court today.

The trouble, according to the report made to the police, started aboard a tramcar at Seward and Chaoufoong Roads when the sailors refused to pay fares when approached by the conductor, and later by an inspector. The latter is said to have been struck by one of the sailors.

The car was stopped and a Chinese constable attempted to intervene. A general scuffle ensued when a Sikh arrived on the scene and during the melee a Chinese named Li Ah-ping received a knife wound. He was taken to St. Luke's Hospital where his wound was pronounced as not serious. Two of the sailors were detained at Hongkew police station, the others being turned over to the Italian naval authorities.

AIRMEN GATHER FOR ANNUAL REUNION DINNER

The second annual reunion dinner of the British Flying Services was held at the Shanghai Club Saturday with Major W. R. B. McBain, M.C., A.F.C., in the chair, supported by Major W. E. Holland.

After the toasts to "The King" and "Our Fallen Comrades" were given the chairman proposed "The British Flying Services." His remarks were brief and to the point. He described the Flying Services as a necessity to the Fighting Services and gave a resume of the building up of the service during the great war. He spoke of the progress being made today in aviation and alluded with regret to the fact that it is so far behind in China.

Major Holland in proposing the toast to "Our Guests" referred to the importance of a gathering attended by so many eminent Allied airmen. He referred also to the number of officers of the Royal Naval Air Service, Royal Flying Corps and Royal Air Force, Some of these left Shanghai and joined up in 1914 and 1915, serving with distinction, while one Old China Hand boasts of a V. C. Capt Schlesier (French) replied for the guests in an appropriate manner and thanked the British members for their hospitality.

A resolution was moved and carried that members of the British and Allied Flying Services in Shanghai form a "dinner club" and gather together once a year for a dinner to be held on the first of April. The honorary secretary is Mr. S. R. Kerr, 49 Kiangse Road, to whom all inquiries should be made.

She had always been a very bad sailor. As a precaution she was given two capsules of 'KIRBY'S SEA-SICK CURE' immediately she went on board. There was no nausea of any kind, and the remedy produced no after-effects."

OLD BILL WINS CRITERIONS AND BECOMES FIRST CHOICE FAVORITE IN THE CHAMPIONS

The Knut, Sherwood And Hilo Picked As Winners Of The Derby Today

Old Bill, veteran classic winner, ridden at this meeting by Mr. M. O. Springfield, went to the top of the list of favorites for The Champions Sweepstakes when the pony won yesterday's main event, The Criterion Stakes. The Hawk, being ridden by Mr. William Hill, which until yesterday had ranked as first choice favorite for the Champions with Mr. Toeg's Columbia, dropped to second choice last night. The opinion of the membership of the Race Club as expressed at the lotteries that were held last night fixed upon Mr. Henry Morriss' pony Maresfield as third choice favorite in tomorrow's big race.

The shifting of choice at the lotteries grows out of yesterday's performances. While Old Bill finished the mile course of the Criterion Stakes without particular urging, in the fourth race, The Cathay Cup, a mile and a quarter, Maresfield ridden by Mr. Heard, won and finished three lengths ahead of the Hawk which scored only third place in the event. The outcome of this event with Nationalist, ridden by Mr. Knoll finishing in second place, and also in some measure the outcome of the seventh race won by Inniskilling with Mr. Hitch up, had some little effect in boosting the stock of Mr. William McBain's stable.

OTHERS FAVORED

In last night's lotteries considerable support was accorded to Nationalist of this stable for the Champions. Others shown some degree of favor were Mr. Day's Shenkoland which finished in second place in The Criterions yesterday with Mr. A. N. Dallas up and in particular the griffin The Knut which achieved an easy victory in the fifth race for a mile from a field of griffins doing the distance in :07 4-5.

The Shanghai Derby, one of Shanghai great annual classics is to be the main event of today's program. It will be run in the noon hour about 12:30, third race of the program.

It is probable that a field of upwards twenty griffins will start in The Derby. The victory of Mr. Moon on The Knut in the fifth race only served to clinch the fancy of race followers for the pony and it will face the starter today long favorite in the race.

DERBY FAVORITES

Sherwood, to be ridden by Mr. Hill, it is understood, was reckoned to be second choice favorite for The Derby in last night's lotteries. Yesterday the pony finished in third place in the fifth race for one mile which was won by The Knut with Colorado finishing in second place.

One of yesterday's extraordinary surprises was the victory of Mrs. William McBain's pony Hilo with Mr. Springfield up in The Eclipse Stakes. In this event Hilo finished ahead of Aintree, hitherto a hot favorite for the Derby and by reason of this victory the place of their choice favorite was accorded last night to Hilo. The pony probably will be ridden again by Mr. Springfield in the Derby.

Besides the three named, Aintree received considerable support in the bidding last night as did also Mr. Allan's ponies, Colorado and Indiana.

DRAMATIC OPENING

The opening of a big meeting yesterday morning was more than ordinarily dramatic, for the greatest surprise of the day was sprung in the first race when Mr. Toeg's Henry VIII, ridden by Mr. Sleap, finished three lengths ahead of the long favorites in the race, The Robin, ridden by Mr. Hill, and Roman Pride, ridden by Mr. Moller. And in doing this Henry VIII lowered the track record for nine furlongs two fifths seconds by making the time in 2:20 flat. The record hitherto has been held by Pilgrim and was made only recently. In the opinion of many this victory makes Henry VIII a more than likely candidate in the Champions Sweepstake. The dividend for win in this race, the largest of the day, and one of the largest in recent years on the Shanghai course was $790.

UNUSUAL DEAD HEAT

The upset of the first race was but a preliminary for the remarkable incident of The Criterion Stakes in which three ponies ran a dead heat for third place. This was the race in which Old Bill qualified and it is a saying about the Race Club that the winner of the Criterions often is the winner of the Champions. Shenkoland, with Mr. A. N. Dallas up, got second place and the dead heat for third was run by Pennyfield, with Mr. Heard up, Barometer with Mr. Knoll up and Twenty-two Carat, ridden by Mr. Hill. A more spectacular finish has rarely been seen in Shanghai.

Aside from the big dividend on Henry VIII in the first race several other sizeable payments were made in the course of the day yesterday. These included a payment of $56.80 for win on Inniskilling in the seventh race, another of $51.40 on Guldborg for win in the eighth race and a payment of $151.10 in connection with the victory that Hilo scored in the ninth race.

Mr. William Hill took premier place among the riders yesterday scoring six places in the eleven events, as he won twice, finished second one time and third three times. Mr. Heard won two races, took second place in one and third in one. Mr. Springfield finished in first place in two races.

PROBABLE XI AGAIN LOSE TO POSSIBLE TEAM

Shanghai's Probable cricket team which may represent the local port against the Hongkong Garrison eleven next week, was defeated against Sunday in a trial with the Possible team, by a score of 120-118. There was a marked improvement in batting on both sides, and some very effective bowling.

Wainwright for the Probable team knocked up 56 runs and Raikes for the Possible team scored 24. The former's batting was one of the features of the match. His "six" into the club dressing room was one of the best hits ever seen in Shanghai.

Bowling honors were in favor of the Probable eleven. Wilson's five wickets in sixteen overs for 5 maidens and 22 runs was about the best performance. Billings followed closely with four wickets in 10.1 overs for 21 runs. Mancell-Smith took the remaining wicket in four overs for 23 runs. For the Possibles Allison, Hansell and Wainwright bowled to best advantage.

HUDDERSFIELD TAKES CUP FINAL FROM PRESTON BY A SCORE OF ONE TO NIL

Duke Of York, Prince George And 53,000 Frans Attend Game

(Reuter's Service)

London, April 29.—In the Association Cup Final played at Stamford Bridge, Chelsea, today, Huddersfield beat Preston one goal to nil.

The weather was bright and about 53,000 spectators watched the game. The Duke of York and Prince George were present and were given an enthusiastic reception.

Huddersfield did most of the attacking in the first half. The Preston backs frequently miskicked and as a consequence there was plenty of excitement near their goal. The play on both sides suffered through over anxiety. At half time neither side had scored. There were several fouls in the second half and after twenty-three minutes play Smith, Huddersfield's International outside left, was fouled just inside the penalty area. Taking the kick himself he scored a penalty goal. After this Preston improved and both goals had narrow escapes.

(Reuter's Service)

London, April 29.—Association football results:

LEAGUE FIRST DIVISION

Liverpool 1; West Bromwich 2.
Tottenham 2; Blackburn 2.
Burnley 2; Everton 0.

The relegation problem has now been settled by the Arsenal's 2-0 win over Bradford City. The latter now accompany Manchester United to the Second Division.

LEAGUE SECOND DIVISION

Notts Forest 1; Leeds 0.
Bristol 2; Stoke 0.
Barnsley 2; Notts County 0.

Stoke's chances of promotion have been seriously jeopardised by their defeat today. They need a substantial win next week in order to share in the promotion honors with Notts Forest, otherwise Barnsley will advance to the First League.

At the bottom of the table Bristol City, Blackpool, Coventry, Portvale and Bradford are struggling to preserve their Second League status.

A COMMON COMPLAINT OF CHILDHOOD

Many children in this country are troubled with worms, some of the indications of which are irregular appetite, bad breath, grinding of the teeth in sleep; pain and swelling of the abdomen, irritation in the nose. Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy, given for a few days destroy worms, and a marked improvement in appetite and general health speedily follows.

Mrs. A. Sauvie, of Rowantan, Quebec, writes: "My boy was badly troubled with worms and was feverish and restless. I got a vial of Baby's Own Tablets and since giving them to him all signs of the worms have disappeared and he is now in good health. I think Baby's Own Tablets have no equal as a medicine for this trouble."

Guaranteed free from opiates and absolutely harmless even to the youngest infant, Baby's Own Tablets are a remedy for indigestion, constipation, simple fever, diarrhoea and teething troubles. They are obtainable from chemists, also at 60 cents the vial post free from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

Dear Mr. Hepworth:

We showed "Alf's Button" to the Prince of Wales, his staff and ward room officers. The success of the picture was pronounced.

His Royal Highness stopped me on the quarter deck and said:

"Convey my hearty congratulations to Mr. Hepworth on this clever production. I laughed enough to burst a button myself."

Hangchow Business Men Entertain Americans Of Commercial Delegation

Tuchun Lu Yung-hsiang Sees Future Of Nation Assured By Commerce Rather Than Arms; Shanghai Party Given Hearty Welcome

"Commercial competition rather than military supremacy will assure a great nation, and international trade relationships mean international amity," said General Lu Yung-hsiang, Tuchun of Chekiang, in welcoming the American Chamber of Commerce party to Hangchow Saturday night. The Tuchun and the Civil Governor were hosts to the Americans at a dinner held at the Tuchun's Yamen.

General Lu regarded trade associations and organisations as the important means to further co-operation and mutual improvement. He expressed delight at the visit of the Americans to Hangchow and said that Chinese and foreign commercial organisations would mould closer relationships by interchange of ideas.

"We of Hangchow consider that your visit will mean less misunderstanding in a business way," he said.

Members of the delegation were guests of six commercial and trade organisations at tiffin when one of the leading merchants, Wong Shiang-chi, delivering an address on their behalf, also voiced welcome to the Americans.

He said in part:

"We recognise America as a leading nation in commerce. Like her, our country is rich in resources and has the same geographical advantages. As both nations are lovers of peace and hold the same ideals, they should both be great and prosperous nations.

"But look at China! As a result of the weak condition of her industry, her unopened mines, her unbuilt roads, recurring famines and internal troubles her commerce has reached a very low ebb.

"We admit that America has far surpassed us on this point. We admire her achievement and hope to follow in her footsteps, for we are patient and persevering people and we will not give up until the present cloud over our affairs has passed and we can see a brighter day.

"We also recognise the fact that America is earnestly and enthusiastically trying to bring about international friendship and trying to raise commercial standards, and when the day of our prosperity arrives, the Chinese people will not forget the helping hand of the American people."

The following organisations were hosts at the tiffin: Chamber of Commerce of Hangchow, Bankers' Association of Hangchow, Money Changers' Guild of Hangchow, Silk Merchants Guild of Hangchow, Association of Pawn Brokers of Chekiang and the Cloth Merchants' Guild of Hangchow.

Sunday the entire American party was taken on a trip to Lin Ying Temple, going in chairs to the West Lake, crossing the lake in specially chartered boats and then resuming the chair trip. Several monasteries and temples were visited on the trip.

Delegations from various organisations and the Commissioner for Foreign Affairs of the Tuchun's office, F. H. Wong Singsan, were at the station when the train pulled out bringing the delegation back to Shanghai Sunday night.

Speaking on behalf of the Shanghai party, Mr. Paul Page Whitham, acting chairman of the delegation, expressed the gratitude of the Americans for the hearty reception accorded and excellent entertainment program provided by the Hangchow business men during the two days stay in the city.

350 AT MEETING IN OBSERVATION OF "LABOR DAY"

About 350 Chinese laborers assembled yesterday afternoon at Eliza Yates Memorial School, opposite North Szechuen Road police station, for a "Labor Day" meeting.

The meeting opened at 2 o'clock and lasted for nearly four hours, the assembly being addressed by half a dozen speakers, whose talks, some of a fiery nature, were received with great enthusiasm by the audience. Copies of the "Workers' Weekly" and other Socialist literature were distributed and following the meeting the crowd paraded through the Chapei district.

Previous plans for a big mass meeting at the Wuchingying parade grounds, near Shanghai South railway station, were abandoned by labor leaders following the refusal of Defense Commissioner Ho Feng-tin to grant a permit in view of the fact that martial law is in effect in the Chinese City.

Barber Line Seeks U. S. Shipping Board Ships For Far East

(China Press Service)

Washington, March 22.—The Barber Steamship Company of New York has submitted an offer to the Shipping Board for a "cluster" of freight ships. While the Commissioners have not accepted the proposition, it is understood that the company, one of the oldest American lines engaged in foreign trade, offered to pay $1,000,000 in cash. A tender was submitted for the motorship, William Penn, which has just completed a 30,000 mile globe girding voyage under the Barber house flag, it is known.

Oakley Wood, vice-president of the Barber Line, announced at the Shipping Board that the offer had been made. He did not specify the number of ships for which tenders had been made, but said the proposition was for a "cluster" of vessels. If the commissioners accept the freighters will be employed in the trade to the Far East, it is understood.

Mr. Wood stated that under the present conditions his company regarded the possession of an American ship as a "liability" rather than an "asset," owing to the depressed conditions of the ocean freight market and the high operating costs of an American steamer. However, it has enough faith in the future, he said, to seek to buy American tonnage at a figure which it believes to be the value of the steamers.

Turkey Accepts Allied Demands

(Reuter's Service)

Constantinople, April 30.—The Porte has informed the Allied High Commissioners that it accepts the Allies' peace proposals generally but with a reservation with regard to the discussion of important points, including financial, military and reparations questions.

The Porte insists on the evacuation of the occupied regions and demands an equitable regime for Mussulmen and the maintenance of the Sultan's religious authority.

It protests against the Inter-Allied Commission supervising the Straits, while promising entire freedom of navigation.

The Porte rejects any [illegible] of compensation to Greece but promises to respect minorities.

Shipping Conference Set For October

(Reuter's Service)

London, April 29.—The chief item on the agenda of the International Shipping Conference which will meet in London in October will deal with the grievances as regards the immunity of state owned shipping from liability and taxation.

The Chamber of Shipping, which supports the views of the Comite Maritime International, declares that private shipowners have been gravely prejudiced, especially when vessels or cargoes have been employed for ordinary commercial purposes, and points out that a sovereign state cannot be sued for collision damage, salvage or towage rendered, although on the contrary it possesses the right of recovery, while even a greater threat to shipping and overseas trade is the immunity of state owned vessels from income tax in their own country and their claim for immunity from taxation in every other country, and also their immunity from safety regulations relating to cargo, passengers and crew. It is proposed that an International Convention shall be framed placing state owned maritime property precisely on the same footing as that which is privately owned.

Exchange Fluctuations

Asia Banking Corporation

May 1, 1922

Spot bar silver was unchanged and forward down ⅛d. in London on Saturday. The New York price is unchanged, as is also the London-New York cross rate.

The only change in our official quotations here today was a rise in the Franc rate to 815.

Our market was very firm throughout the morning, business in Sterling being done as high as 3-5⅝ for May-June and 3-5½ for July.

Gold Dollars were done at 76¾ for May-June and 76½ for July.

The market was excited and erratic throughout the day. At times there were sellers at these rates and at times buyers, but at all times there were sellers at a fraction below these quotations and buyers at a fraction higher.

The Continent sold a small amount of silver in London on Saturday and India bought. The market there, as well as in New York, is reported as steady.

Singapore Rubber Auction

Singapore, April 12, 1922

The upward movement in the London market continued during the week until 8⅞d. was reached; this morning, however, London is again reported down to 8½d. New York is 15½ cents, after having touched 16 cents. The local market has followed the fluctuations in the consuming markets, but continues to be steady with sellers holding out for full prices.

There were catalogued 824 tons for sale at the weekly Rubber auction today, and 722 tons were offered, of which 592 tons changed hands. The demand was good and prices show a slight advance on the week.

Awarded Standard Ribbed Smoked Sheet were easily disposed of at 27½ cents; several sellers, however, withdrew their lots, probably holding out for better prices in the outside market.

Sheet equal to Standard sold to an interested market at prices about 1 cent up.

Off Quality Sheet was wanted.

There was a sound demand for this grade and Crepe equal to Standard, the latter grade selling at prices 1 to 1½ cents above last week's and some lots fetching 28 cents.

Off Color Latex and Mottled Crepes were wanted at above mentioned prices.

Brown, Dark and Barky Crepes advanced on an average ½ cent, and were easy of sale.

Soviet To Admit Autos Duty Free

(Reuter's Service)

London, April 29.—The Soviet Government anticipates the improvement of transport conditions in Russia as the outcome of a decree permitting the free importation of motor cars. It is stated that negotiations have been entered into with foreign motor car manufacturers to establish branches in Russia on a mixed corporation basis. German, American and Italian companies propose to institute omnibus and motor truck services linking up railway stations, and also to construct an interurban railway from Moscow.

The Place Of Chinese Christian Students In The Problem Of National Reconstruction

BY FRANCIS ZIA

As a result of the conference held by the World's Student Christian Federation at Peking, the 11th since its inception in 1895, much light has been shed on the potential power of the Christian students in the East and West as a vital asset to the gigantic enterprise of reconstructing and regenerating the world which is not only on the verge of an economic collapse but is also witnessing sufferings the parallel of which cannot be found in the history of humanity.

In China there is a national awakening to the importance of the role which students will assume in shaping the destiny of this vast Republic.

The student movement has been a moral success, whatever may be said of the mistakes. While students are realising with increasing vividness the necessity of living up to the standard of an all-round program of intellectual, physical and moral fitness before making themselves of genuine usefulness to the nation, the people as a whole are beginning to show a very keen interest in the welfare of the students and to see in them the rulers of the China of tomorrow.

The atmosphere for the progressive activities of the Christian student in China is therefore exceptionally congenial, and the Christian student of today is shouldering responsibilities which in their significance surpass those carried by the students of former days. The very fact that Christian students of various nationalities are able to meet, as they have already met, on terms of equality, for a frank discussion of their international differences, with a view to evolving practical and lasting solutions of vital world problems, bespeaks the possibility of the advent of a new era of international mutual understanding which will rest on the basis of self-sacrificing international goodwill, freed from the tricks and ruses of crafty diplomats.

But the Chinese Christian student would have his hands full if he were to center his whole attention to the internal problems of his country. In the first place, he needs to have at his command all the resources which an all-round Christian education furnishes him for dealing with the conservative and obstructive elements which he will unavoidably encounter in his social life. His success in the great work of saving China does not lie so much in the great collective powers of his fellow Christian students in China and in other countries. The secret of his achievement will rather lie in his making herculean efforts to convert his countrymen who hold conservative or obstructive views.

His Christian principles will, upon his adhering faithfully to them, equip him with those virtues of tolerance, humility, meekness, fraternal love and self-denial, and will enable him to inspire his neighbor with an admiration of the character-transforming power of Christianity. In fine, he must preach to others by the eloquence of example, for acts of self-sacrifice will drive religious lessons home to the most indifferent.

The non-Christian student movement should not be treated with contempt. Some of the arguments put forth by the leaders of the movement sound convincing to those who have but a superficial knowledge of Christianity. Discussed in a calm and unbiassed frame of mind, the charges directed at the World's Student Christian Federation possess a suggestive value in that they point to certain aspects of Christian activities against which misunderstanding may arise and which should be wisely forestalled.

China today stands in sore need of Christian leaders who work for the happiness which work itself, done for the sole motive of pleasing the Divine Redeemer, gives them. China also needs Christian men and women who conduct themselves as angels of mercy in their communities, not necessarily by doing unusual things which bring them into the public eye but by doing usual things with an uncommon fervor. China needs Christian men and women whose constant aim is to better the lot of the persons over whom they can exercise direct influence, and whose zeal is expended in multiplying in others the gifts which Providence has placed in their hands, whether such gifts be of the material, intellectual or spiritual order. All these vacancies the Christian students in China have abundant opportunities of qualifying themselves to fill when their school days come to a close and they too begin their active struggle in the battle of life. With the exemplification of Christian ideals in every walk of life as their motto, the Chinese Christian students will occupy a place second to none in the great task of the reconstruction of China.

Iodine Is First Among Antiseptics

Iodine still holds first place as a skin and wound disinfectant in surgical technic, particularly in the industrial medical field. Such objections as have been raised to it were against the danger of burns and the discomfort it causes rather than against its efficiency as a sterilising agent. In spite of the great popularity attained by chlorin compounds in the treatment of war wounds, iodine still holds its general popularity and favor in medical circles in the treatment of injuries in civil life.

The Conference Board of Physicians in Industry, which acts as adviser to the National Industrial Conference Board of New York on medical problems in industry, recently investigated the extent to which iodine is used as a wound disinfectant in industrial work, the strength in which it is used and the method of preliminary cleansing of the wound before the application of iodine and dressings.

Replies were received from sixty-five physicians, all of whom were doing industrial work or surgery closely allied to industry. Forty-five replied that they used a solution of 5 percent strength or less and twenty used U. S. P. or greater strength. A few industrial physicians said they did not use iodine, or only sparingly. These men preferred such disinfectants as dichloramin-T, ioric acid, Dakin's solution and similar products. The objection to iodine was that it caused burns too frequently.

Several physicians emphasised the importance of having the skin perfectly dry before iodine is applied. A damp skin surface interferes with the penetration of the antiseptic. The most satisfactory method of preparing the wound area for iodine is to use alcohol and ether as final cleansing agents. In the preliminary cleansing of wounds, gasoline, alone or in conjunction with benzine or ether, is used more than any other treatment. Other agents used are soap and water, alcohol, lysol, cerolin, cresol and similar products.

Research by surgeons and prominent medical men has shown that iodine is particularly valuable because of its penetrating power and because the irritation to which it subjects a wound stimulates healing.

German Farm Workers Have Powerful Union

To no section of the working class population of Germany did the political revolution of 1918 bring greater advantages than to the masses of farm laborers, according to statements frequently found in the Social press of the republic. Before the World War the unions had succeeded in organising only about 20,000 of these workers, and at the time of the collapse of the Kaiser's forces in November, 1918, the membership of the Farm Workers' Union was but 8,000. Then came the great revival in trade union activity all over the country, and today there are some 700,000 laborers in the Farm Workers' Union, while about 140,000 others are organised in what are labeled "yellow," or bosses,' unions by the regular trade union press.

On the occasion of a gathering in Berlin of representatives of the junker agrarians of Brandenburg Province, at which considerable mud was slung at the "upstart republic" and all its works, Vorwarts, the central organ of the Social Democratic Party, printed on Feb. 18 a detailed account of the activities of the Farm Workers' Union and opined that all the ravings of the boss farmers against the so-called Reds would not bring back the "good old times" when the farm workers were veritable serfs, tolling from early morn to late at night and knowing no law but the will of their employers. In order to keep the farm workers out of the union the agrarians have organised an "Employes' Group" as an annex to the Land League and promise higher wages to its members than those obtained by the union. During 1920 the Farm Workers' Union spent 4,463,869 marks in fighting for and negotiating agreement on wages and working hours, while 1,250,000 marks were paid out in sick benefits.

Of the 12,530,238 persons in Germany belonging to labor organisations on Jan. 1, 1921, 7,601,035 were members of unions forming part of the General German Trade Union League (the so-called free trade unions based on Socialist principles), and 750,456 were enrolled in the General Free Office Employes' League, which, since April 12, 1921, is practically a section of the General Trade Union League. These figures were printed in Vorwarts of Feb. 12 on the authority of the Reichs-Arbeitsblatt. Next to the "free" trade unions come the Christian National (clerically controlled) unions, with 1,027,497 hand workers, 463,199 office employes and 242,624 "Beamten" (mostly public service employes and officials.) The so-called independent organisations embrace 1,059,277 "Beamten," of whom 919,062 are in the German "Beamten" League, 110,401 hand workers and 97,167 office employes. The Hirsch-Dunker unions (organisations founded on the principle of harmony between workers and employers) number 350,000 office employes, 225,998 hand workers and 82,000 "Beamten," while other unions along the same line have enrolled 167,009 hand workers, 48,433 office employes and 4,762 "Beamten." The communist and syndicalist unions have a membership of 240,631 hand workers and 6,231 office employes, The smallest group is that of the so-called confessionals (non-Catholic religious unions), with 86,398 enrolled members.

In quoting from the statistics on wage movements, strikes and lockouts in Germany in 1920, issued by the General Trade Union League, Vorwarts remarks that they will no longer appear in the old form, as in the future the Government's official statisticians will work hand in hand with the unions in compiling data on labor subjects. In the pre-revolutionary days the Government's figures were alleged to have been far from reliable where labor matters were concerned, so it was necessary for the unions to issue their own statistics to offset the official statements. The report for 1920 covers thirty-eight of the fifty national unions affiliated with the League and shows expenditures of 98,032,996 marks in handling 38,547 cases involving 13,043,928 workers, resulting in wages increases of 608,159,858 marks and a reduction of 765,307 hours in working time. In 23,001 cases, involving 12,103,847 workers, settlements were effected without strikes or lockouts.

Although the value of the goods produced in the establishments of the German Wholesal Purchasing Society for the Cooperative Societies of Consumption in 1921 amounted to 234,784,773 marks, compared with 156,429,448 marks in 1920, a writer in Vorwarts, in summarising the report of the Wholesale Society, complains that the nineteen producing plants of the society were not kept busy to capacity. He urges the German co-operators to increase their subscriptions to the 5½ percent bonds being issued by the society for the purpose of increasing its productive activities. 35,900,000 marks of which were sold last year. The Wholesale Society's turnover in 1921 was 2,406,982,699 marks, against 1,351,224,382 in 1920. The average exchange value of the mark during the last year was about one cent. In the banking department the turnover totaled 3,437,000,000 marks, compared with 1,754,000,000 in 1920.

Charges that the agrarians are holding back their potatoes in order to force the German Government to raise the official producers' price of 85 marks per "zentner" (110 pounds), while the common people of Berlin and other big cities are unable to obtain this important food staple at half-way reasonable rates, are made by Vorwarts in an article on the potato shortage printed Feb. 18. Profiteering in the limited stocks that reach Berlin is rampant, as much as 5 marks per pound being paid in the West End, where the residents don't haggle over a few marks more or less, while in the ordinary markets 3 marks per pound are asked. Only fifty or sixty miles away there is no potato shortage, and prices average about 90 marks per "zentner." The Association of German Potato Interests, in an attempt to answer criticism of the trade, lays the blame for the situation upon the recent railroad strike and the cold weather.

Due to an increase of about 25 percent in the amount of land devoted to the cultivation of sugar beets in Germany last year, the sugar production for 1921-22 is estimated at 1,285,000 metric tons, against 1,099,468 tons the preceding season, according to figures given in the Frankfurter Zeitung of Feb. 24. The drought and lack of fertilisers cut the production per hestare from 23.8 to 21.7 tons, but 340,188 hectares were planted, against 272,839 in 1920. In 1912-13, 2,632,282 tons of sugar were produced from 547,625 hectares.

In delivering to the Spanish Government the two Spanish syndicalists, Luis Nicol Fort and Lucia Joaquina Concepcion, accused of having taken part in the murder of Premier Dato in Madrid last March, the German Government, according to a statement made in the Reichstag on Feb. 23 by Dr. Radbruch, the Minister of Justice, asked the Spanish Ambassador to try to see to it that the syndicalists be not executed in case they should be condemned to death. This was a concession to the Socialists, communists and trade unionists, who had unanimously protested against the extradition on the ground of the offense having been political. Dr. Radburch also remarked that Germany must be very careful in observing the rules of extradition now that she was anxious to have the alleged murderers of Matthias Erzberger brought back from Hungary.

It is the most durable of all decorations, lasting for years with freshness unimpaired, whereas wall-papers deteriorate from the first day by fading and accumulating dust and dirt.

Hall And Holtz, Ltd., Meeting

The annual general meeting of Messrs. Hall and Holtz, Ltd., was held Saturday at 11 a.m. at the head offices, 14 Nanking Road. An extraordinary general meeting followed the regular session.

The chair was occupied by Mr. J. D. Clark, who was supported by Messrs. E. Moller and A. K. Craddock, directors; Mr. G. H. Bartlett, secretary, and a number of shareholders. The notice convening the meeting and the auditors' report having been read, the chairman said:

"Gentlemen—It is with great regret that the directors have to appear before you this morning with such unsatisfactory results of the year's working, as are shown in the balance sheet. The affairs of this company have, for some considerable time past, been a matter of deep concern to the board, but I can assure you that they have not failed to appreciate the situation and have given their closest attention to your business, to mitigate, as far as possible, the difficult conditions under which the company's trading has had to be carried on during the past few years. It is a well-known fact that the recent world-wide depression has caused the gravest anxiety to everybody connected with business matters, and this company has not escaped from the troublous times. Prices of goods have fallen to an unprecedented extent rendering earlier purchases a most unprofitable investment, adverse fluctuations in exchange have rendered it impossible to sell much of our stock, even at cost price, and therefore in many instances we have had to face an actual loss in the turnover of certain lines of goods. There is no need for me to dilate upon the general unsatisfactoriness of trade for the past year or so; it is common knowledge that business of every description has been most difficult to transact on the profitable lines that were feasible before the war, but I have to state that in addition to these difficult conditions we have been severely handicapped by the several changes (5 in all) in our management during the past 3 or 4 years. These changes have seriously interrupted the consecutive working of good business, but your directors trust that future trading will be carried on under more normal conditions. The chief drawback resulting from these changes is that we have on hand an excess of stock; too many goods, were ordered when prices were high, and these goods have arrived on a falling exchange, which makes their cost too high for profitable sale. Many of the goods were disposed of at cheap sales and the sacrifices made, in many instances, were very great, which accounts for much of the loss in the year's working. Then on taking stock at the end of the year, consideration had to be given to the sale value of the goods, consequently very full depreciation had to be allowed which also contributes to the loss under notice. Your directors have given their unremitting attention to the reduction of expenses, and whilst their efforts in this direction may not be apparent, good work has been done, and the benefits accruing from their action will certainly manifest themselves in due course. Wages have gone up and our expenses all round were higher last year than formerly, but we are economising wherever it is possible to do so, and in this respect I may mention we have closed our London office and have appointed a firm of agents to attend to our business in Europe, which will effect a considerable saving in the future.

"Turning to the accounts, you will observe that we have made them as full of detail as possible, and I think you will find them self-explanatory. We have depreciated our fixtures on practically the same basis as last year, and they are regarded as a good asset at the present book value. An amount of $10,000 has been set apart as a reserve for bad and doubtful debts, and this provision should be sufficient to cover such items as are irrecoverable. A careful scrutiny of our outstanding accounts was made last year, but many items that were considered to be good then, have since been found to be of doubtful value now, hence the appropriation. No efforts will be spared, however, to collect moneys that should have been paid long ago. With regard to our properties which now stand in our books at $649,518.79, I may state that the assessed value of same is considerably more than this amount. Improvements were made to our Shanghai building as the result of the removal of the furniture factory to Pingliang Road, and we consider this transfer not only beneficial to your business, but the change has given improved facilities for trading in this building, as no doubt you have already seen for yourselves on visiting the upper floors. We have depreciated all our buildings this year from the property reserve account, as we consider this a reasonable method of dealing with same, and I feel sure you will approve of our action in this respect. The equalisation of dividend fund stand unchanged at $30,000, but your directors consider that this should now be credited to profit and loss account, as it really represents surplus funds from days gone by, but which have since been lost through bad debts, etc., and I shall ask you to pass a resolution, later on, authorising this transfer to be made, as your directors do not think that any useful purpose will be served by keeping the account open under its present heading. Our overdraft with the bank, and bills payable, are some $150,000 more than last year, and this increase is represented entirely by our larger stocks, namely, an increase of over $50,000 at Shanghai and over $100,000 at Tientsin. The bank has requested us to furnish them with further security against our liabilities with them, hence the convening of the extraordinary meeting, to be held on the termination of this meeting, for the purpose of authorising increased borrowing powers, anent which I will give you further information when placing the resolution before you. Our sundry debtors are larger by $11,000 this year than last, and as they have been carefully checked they may be regarded as good, with the provision made, and already referred to, for the bad debts. The item is bigger than hitherto, as we have had a larger turnover of business during the year. The loss for the year as shown in the profit and loss account is $62,220.18 and deducting the amount of $30,766.25 brought forward from last year, there is a debit balance of $25,453.93 which your directors recommend to be carried forward to next account.

"I will conclude my remarks, gentlemen, by assuring you that the directors realise the necessity of seeing that the utmost care is exercised in the conduct of your business and they will leave nothing undone to ensure that expenditure is curtailed to the utmost extent, with a view to presenting a more satisfactory report on the next occasion, which the board are confident of being able to accomplish. Dr. Ivy resigned his seat on the board at the end of the financial year, and I take this opportunity to thank him for the valuable services he rendered during his connection with us. It is not proposed to fill the vacancy thus caused at the present time. Before asking you to pass the accounts there is one other matter I wish to place before you. The articles of association provide for our annual general meeting being held in March or April, but as this gives us too little time to prepare the accounts in a normal manner, I shall ask you to pass a resolution authorising the annual general meeting to be held during the month of May for the future. That gentlemen is all I have to say—and I now beg to propose that the report and accounts as printed be passed. This is seconded by Mr. Moller. If any gentleman has any questions to ask, I shall be glad to answer same to the best of my ability."

The following resolutions were proposed and carried.

That the report and accounts as published and presented be passed and that the debit balance of $25,453.93 be carried forward to next year. Proposed by Mr. J. D. Clark and second by Mr. E. Moller.

That the sum of $30,000 now standing at the credit of equalisation of dividend account, be transferred to the credit of profit and loss account. Proposed by Mr. J. D. Clark and seconded by Mr. A. K. Craddock.

That the annual general meeting be held during the month of May for the future, instead of as provided for in the articles of association, Para. 50. Proposed by Mr. J. D. Clark and seconded by Mr. Caldwell.

That Messrs. Seth, Mancell and McLure be elected auditors for the ensuing year. Proposed by Mr. Caldwell and seconded by Mr. Thomas.

EXTRAORDINARY MEETING

The extraordinary meeting being called the chairman said:

"Gentlemen—I will now proceed with the extraordinary general meeting and will ask the secretary to read the resolutions to be proposed."

This being done the chairman said:

"Gentlemen—The passing of these resolutions has become necessary as a result of the request made by our bankers, to furnish them with a debenture for Tls. 570,000—to cover our total liabilities with the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation. No money, of course, will be raised, but it is now necessary to give the bank this security to include not only our overdraft but bills payable, amounting to about Tls. 200,000, although such acceptances have never been covered hitherto. This sum will, we trust, be a gradually diminishing amount as we are taking steps to keep such financing down to the lowest possible limits for the future. The resolutions are purely formal but will require confirmation at a meeting to be held on May 27 next. I propose, and Mr. Craddock seconds.

"(1) That this meeting sanctions the borrowing by the directors from time to time at their discretion for the purposes of the company any sum or sums of money provided that the total amount owing shall not exceed at any one time Tls. 800,000.

"(2) That the directors be and they are hereby authorised to raise the sum of Tls. 200,000 by the issue of Debentures to be in such form and to be secured in such manner and to be issued to such persons and on such terms as the directors think expedient or otherwise."
